

Networker

Central London

£70,000–£90,000 + package

Vacancy ID: 010149

You'll be joining a growing nationwide workplace fit out contractor with turnover approaching £40M and clear plans to scale further. This is a senior relationship-led role focused on converting established industry contacts into secured projects between £500K and £5M.

You'll operate with autonomy, supported by a credible design and delivery team who have experience winning work, within a commercially mature and supportive culture.

What You'll Do

You'll build and maintain relationships with agents and project managers across the London market, ensuring the business is well positioned for upcoming workplace fit out opportunities.

You'll manage your own pipeline, arranging meetings, making calls and maintaining consistent visibility with senior contacts. The role is based on disciplined networking and long-term relationship development rather than transactional selling.

You'll work closely with an experienced internal design team, leveraging their credibility and expertise to strengthen bids and convert prospects into secured work.

What You'll Get

You'll receive a competitive salary and commission package aligned to the level of work you secure.

You'll join a growing contractor with clear promotion prospects as turnover increases. The culture is grown up and supportive, with leadership that understands progression from within.

You'll represent a business capable of delivering prestigious workplace projects, backed by experienced designers and operational teams.

The company operates within an employee-owned structure, reinforcing long-term stability and a positive working environment.

What You'll Need

You must have a stable and demonstrable network within the London workplace or construction market, with experience securing projects between £500K and £5M.

You'll be comfortable engaging senior agents and project managers on a regular basis and capable of managing your own diary and pipeline effectively.

Self-motivation, organisation and credibility are essential.

About the Company

You'll be joining a nationwide workplace fit out contractor with a strong London presence and a turnover of approximately £40M, targeting further growth. The business employs a focused team and benefits from experienced leadership and a respected design function.

Its employee-owned structure underpins a stable, supportive and commercially mature culture.
