London

£50,000–£60,000 + commission

Vacancy ID: 010151

You'll join a well-established nationwide design and build contractor with turnover in excess of £60M and clear growth ambitions. This is a focused role centred on securing high-quality meetings with senior decision makers attached to genuine workplace fit out projects.

You will operate within an experienced, low-turnover team that values professionalism and consistent performance.

What You'll Do

You'll engage daily with senior individuals across the London workplace market, identifying upcoming projects and qualifying opportunities carefully.

Your responsibility will be to secure meaningful meetings for senior pre-construction and design colleagues, ensuring their time is spent in front of well-qualified prospects.

You'll maintain a steady pipeline of opportunities, focusing on quality bookings rather than high-volume activity. The role requires confidence, preparation and a strong understanding of the design and build process.

What You'll Get

You'll receive a competitive salary and commission structure aligned to performance.

You'll represent a respected contractor delivering prestigious workplace projects nationwide.

The culture is mature and commercially focused, with realistic expectations and a steady stream of leads.

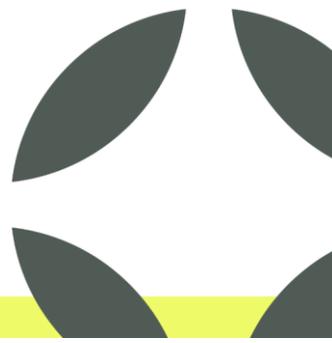

As the business continues to grow, there is scope for progression and broader responsibility for high performers. Low staff turnover reflects a stable and supportive working environment.

What You'll Need

Experience within design and build workplace fit out is essential.

You'll have a track record of securing meetings with senior decision makers around live or emerging projects, demonstrating confidence and credibility in your approach.

Organisation, resilience and disciplined pipeline management will be key to success.

About the Company

You'll be joining a nationwide workplace design and build contractor with turnover exceeding £60M and ambitions to grow further. The business has an established client base, experienced leadership and a reputation for delivering high-quality workplace environments across the UK.

The culture is stable, professional and growth-oriented.
